Composting Workshop: Turning Garbage Into Gold in North Fulton

Clean Water Campaign is partnering with the local University of Georgia Cooperative Extension Service to conduct the workshop. Landscape refuse, such as leaves, grass clippings and trimmings, accounts for up to 20 percent of the waste being put into landfills (Source: UGA). The Roswell/Fulton Composting Workshop will be held on September 22 from 6:30 to 8:00 p.m. at Roswell City Hall located at 38 Hill Street, Roswell, GA 30075. The presenter is Lynwood Blackmon of the Fulton County Cooperative Extension Service. Registration for the free workshop is required. Register by calling 404-463-3259 or online www.cleanwatercampaign.com.

The Clean Water Campaign is a cooperative, multi-agency public education initiative spearheaded by local governments in metro Atlanta, supported by the Metropolitan North Georgia Water Planning District and managed by the Atlanta Regional Commission. Its mission is to build awareness of water quality problems and solutions in the Atlanta region. For more information about the Clean Water Campaign, contact Kelley O'Brien at 404-463-3259.
